Statement by Attorneys Representing Christian Zacek Relating to the Agreement in the Shohei Ohtani Historic 50/50 Homerun Baseball Litigation

October 17, 2024

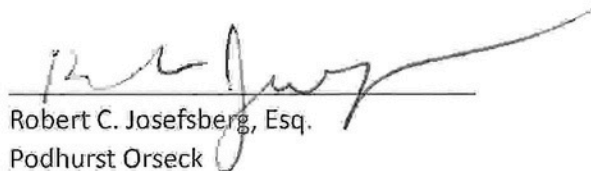

We are thrilled to announce that all three baseball fans in the Shohei Ohtani 50/50 baseball litigation matters have agreed that the auction and sale of one of the most extraordinary pieces of sports memorabilia in history will proceed as scheduled without any opposition to the sale from each of the fans. This agreement provides certainty to potential buyers that the historic 50/50 baseball will be sold free and clear of any legal claims to the baseball against the future buyer. We believe that this agreement reflects all parties' recognition of this monumental achievement and will allow the full value of this historic 50/50 baseball to be fully recognized at the auction.
